

ABIRĀDŪŠ

ABIRĀDŪŠ, a village in Elam. According to the inscriptions DSf and DSz of Darius I, the stone pillars used on the building of his palace in Susa were brought from there. In the Elamite versions of the same inscriptions the village is called Hapiraduš.

BIBLIOGRAPHY

Old Persian, pp. 142-44.

F. Vallat, "Deux inscriptions élamites de Darius I," Stud. Ir. I, 1972, pp. 8-13.