Sources: The sources used for the Chronological Table have been varied and numerous. The entries in the Encyclopaedia Iranica, as far as they go, have been our surest source. Among other general works, the Encyclopaedia of Islam, the Encyclopedia of World History, the Encyclopaedia Britannica, the Realencyclopädie der classischen altertumswissenschaft and the Dā'eret alma'āref-e bozorg-e eslāmi were consulted. The major source for the entire period is the seven-volume Cambridge History of Iran. Other main works consulted are:

Arnold T. Wilson, A Bibliography of Persia, Oxford, 1930.

L. P. Elwell-Sutton, A Bibliographical Guide to Iran, Brighton, 1983.

Josef Wiesehöfer, Ancient Persia, London, 1996.

Ferdinand Justi, Iranisches Namenbuch, Hildesheim, 1895.

Pierre Briant, From Cyrus to Alexander: A History of the Persian Empire, English tr., Winona Lake, 2002.

Arthur Christensen, L'Iran sous les Sassanides, Copenhagen, 1944.

C. E. Bosworth, The New Islamic Dynasties, New York, 1996.

A. J. Arberry, The Legacy of Persia, Oxford, 1953.

E. G. Browne, A Literary History of Persia, 4 vols., Cambridge, 1902-24.

Jan Rypka, History of Iranian Literature, English trans., Dordrecht, 1968.

Bertold Spüler, Iran in frühislamischer Zeit, Wiesbaden, 1952.

C. A. Storey, Persian Literature: A Bio-bibliographical Survey, London, 1927-90.

Ḍabihollāh Ṣafā, Tāriḳ-e adabiyāt dar Irān, 5 vols. and 8 parts, Tehran, 1953-90.

Ehsan Yarshater, ed. Persian Literature, New York, 1988.

L. P. Elwell-Sutton, Modern Iran, London, 1944.

Bāqer Āqeli, Ruz-šēmār-e tāriḳ-e Irān az mašruḩa tā enqelāb-e eslāmi, 2 vols.,

2nd edition, Tehran, 1995.

S. Alizādeh, A. Pahlavāni, and A. Sadrniā, eds., Iran: a chronological history, Tehran, 2002.

Needless to say, some of the works need to be consulted with caution. Many dates, particularly the further back one goes in time, are imprecise and sometimes contradictory in different sources. In such cases, a judgment has been made and, where necessary, a range of dates has been given.
