

FLOYER, ERNEST AYSCOGHE

FLOYER, ERNEST AYSCOGHE (b. Lincolnshire, England, 1852; d. Cairo, Egypt, 1903), explorer, writer, and the first station chief of the Indo-European Telegraph Line at Jāsk (

BIBLIOGRAPHY

E. A. Floyer, Unexplored Baluchistan, London, 1882; repr. Quetta, 1977.

I. Gershevitch, "Travels in Bashkardia," Journal of the Royal Central Asian Society 46, 1959, pp. 213-24.

V. Cornish, "Obituary Notice: Ernest Ayscoghe Floyer," JRAS, April 1904, pp. 381-86 (with bibliography of works by Floyer).

P. M. Sykes, Ten Thousand Miles in Persia, 1902.