

KABUL

KABUL (Kābol), city in eastern Afghanistan (lat 34°31'00" N, long 69°11'00" E), also the name of its province and a river (see KABUL RIVER). The city is the political capital of Afghanistan and has for more than two centuries been its major city.

- i. Geography of the province.
- ii. Historical geography.
- iii. History from the 16th century to the accession of Zāher Shah.
- iv. Urban politics since Zāher Shah.
- v. Monuments