

ṬUSI, NAŞIR-AL-DIN

ṬUSI, NASIR-AL-DIN Abu Ja'far Moḥammad (b. Ṭus, 17 February 1201/d. Baghdad, 25 June 1274), celebrated polymath and vizier, whose significant works in literary, theological and scientific disciplines later earned him the title of Mo'allem-al-ṭālet, i.e., the third teacher, following Aristotle and Fārābi.

i. Biography

ii. As a Mathematician and Astronomer

iii. Works

a. AKLĀQ-E NĀŞERĪ